BLOTS OUT ECLIPSE Purple Tinges 'Old Sol' Again

A purple sun, appearing small and ominous in a grey mid-afternoon sky, continued to startle Pottstonians yesterday.

For most of the afternoon, the town was saturated by a bright, yellowish light that gave grass a blue tint and made hands and faces look orange.

The theory favored by most astronomers, as well as by the U. S. Weather bureau, was that the natural rays of the sun were refracted by thick smoke from forest fires in Alberta and the District of Mackenzie, in north-central Canada.

The unusual weather was climaxed late last night by a full eclipse of the moon, the last visible in this country until 1953. Heavily clouded skies kept local observers from seeing the moon disappear into the earth's shadow, however. The eclipse lasted until 2:13 o'clock this morning.

Yesterday's sky and light were much less spectacular than they were on Sunday, when the sun turned almost white, then purple, and the town became nearly totally dark after 4:30 p. m. as black smoke rolled over the area.

Those conditions set many residents to wondering if the world were coming to an end, if an atomic bomb had fallen or if some unthought of calamity were about to strike.

These conditions also sent a substantial portion of the citizenry to their telephones. Dozens of calls were received at The Mercury Sunday and again yesterday, and the weird atmospheric conditions became a popular topic of conversation.

THE SMOKE — IF that was what caused the disturbance — came from forest fires that have covered dozens of square miles in northern Alberta and the District of Mackenzie, in Canada. One fire alone, 340 miles northwest of Edmonton, covered more than 50 square miles.

Henry Adams, head of the U. S. Weather bureau in Philadelphia, said, "To be perfectly honest, I don't think anyone really knows. The general opinion is that it is caused by some kind of haze or smoke, possibly smoke from the fires in Canada."

The meteorologist said that the northwest winds were continuing to come over the Northeastern United States from Canada.

Some astronomers, Adams said, believed that the unusual atmospheric conditions were the result of ice crystals or the condensation of moisture in the upper atmosphere.

But ice crystals, Adams pointed out, generally result in a halo around the sun.

On the other hand, smoke from a forest fire customarily makes the sun look red, he noted.

DR. I. M. LEVITT, director of the Fels planetarium in the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, explained that the heavy smoke caused a scattering of the red rays in the sun and that atmospheric conditions scattered the blue rays. A blending of the two produced a bluish red or lavender effect, he said.

Yesterday began cold and partly cloudy. The morning hours were generally cloudy, with only a touch of the peculiar light that marked Sunday afternoon.

Giant Hallowe'en Parade Planned

Pottstown's second post-war Hallowe'en parade — a monster review of gaily costumed youngsters from the whole area — will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 31, a special committee assembled by the Pottstown Recreation commission announced last night.

Cash prizes will be awarded for the best costumes in ten different divisions, with special cash awards planned for floats or other decorated vehicles.

In addition, each parading youngster will receive a special pie at the end of the line of march. Two thousand pies have been promised by Robert P. Smith, president of Mrs. Smith's Pie company, so each boy and girl may have one.

Bands to supply music will be invited to attend from schools throughout the area.

The parade will be the second half of a two-day Hallowe'en program. Parties for children of all ages will be held Monday night, Oct. 30, in Pottstown schools.

NO REGISTRATION is necessary to enter the parade. Boys and girls planning to march and to compete for the prizes have only to appear at the starting point and take their places in their respective groups.

There will be five definite classifications: Impersonation costumes; most original costumes, nationally costumes, funniest costumes and prettiest costumes. Each classification will be sub-divided according to age, 11 years old and older and ten years old and younger, making ten divisions in all.

The special division for vehicles will include everything that rolls or is pushed — floats, cars, baby carriages, bikes, wagons or what have you — as long as it is decorated.

Divisions of the parade will form under special signs on the north and south sides of High street between Adams and Washington streets.

Youngsters should be in their proper divisions by 4:30 o'clock on Hallowe'en afternoon in order to be eligible for the judging at 5 o'clock. Vehicles will form on Warren street at the same time.

Prize winners will be announced in The Mercury on the following day. They will receive their cash awards by calling at the Recreation commission office in borough hall.

THE FIRST DIVISIONS will begin the parade at 5:25 o'clock on a (Continued on Page Five)

22 Missing In Crash of Troop Plane

TOKYO, Tuesday, Sept. 26 (AP) — A C54 troop transport with 51 persons aboard plunged into the sea on takeoff from a Southern Japan air base today. One body has been recovered and 22 persons are missing.

Twenty-eight persons were rescued. Some were hurt critically.

General MacArthur's headquarters announced the plane crashed about half a mile from the end of the air base runway.

The plane carried 43 passengers and a crew of eight. Included in the crew were two nurses and two medical technicians.

Twenty-five passengers and three crew members, including one nurse, were among the survivors.

THE SURVIVORS got into life rafts and were picked up by Japanese fishing boats.

All of the survivors were rushed to a hospital at the air base and later were moved to a hospital in a large city in Southern Japan.

The cause of the accident will be investigated by a board of U. S. Air Force officers.

SEOUL RETAKEN IN BITTER FIGHT

MacArthur Announces
Recapture of South Korea
Capture; Allies Mop Up

TOKYO, Tuesday, Sept. 26 (AP) — General MacArthur announced today that United Nations forces have recaptured Seoul.

Vicious street fighting continued in the flame-swept city even as the announcement was made. American troops were engaged in savage combat with Reds defending from foxholes dug between streetcar tracks.

Smoke rose from devastating fires, burning in four areas.

But, with Marines into the heart of the 500-year-old capital and U.S. infantrymen on top of dominating South mountain inside the city, General MacArthur considered the city tactically secured.

"LIBERATION OF the city was conducted in such a manner as to cause the least possible danger to civil installations," the general said in a communique.

The fires, which broke out last night and were visible for ten miles, threatened to dash the hopes of American commanders that the 500-year-old Korean capital could be wrested from the Reds without serious damage.

AP correspondent Tom Lambert reported from Seoul that fires broke out in four areas at dusk shortly after U. S. Seventh division infantrymen captured the key Red defense position of South mountain.

Lambert said the flames lit up the night skies while American forces were slugging their way near the center of the city in a bitter fight.

U. S. Tenth corps headquarters reported that U. S. Marines beat off a tank-led North Korean assault early today. Then the leathernecks jumped off in the embattled streets toward Duk Soo palace near the city's center.

The Marines destroyed seven Red tanks.

Bolivian Seems to Know Reds' Line of Thought

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP) — Eduardo Arce Matienzo, of Bolivia, recalled in the U. N. General assembly today Russia's claim last year of using atomic energy to move mountains. The Bolivian said: "Still we do not dare ask Soviet experts to our countries because they might leave the mountains where they are and move the governments."

Charles Selvard, 258 Prospect street, won a cash bonus prize for reporting an accident between two delivery trucks.

News doesn't have to be an accident. A well-deserved promotion, a new industrial technique, an amateur hobbyist's achievement — they all can be news, and they all can be worth money to alert readers who telephone 2263 about it.

Stolen Fowl Are Replaced With Worthless Chickens

MARIETTA, Ohio, Sept. 25 (AP) — Robert H. Glass, associate farm agent, today reported someone had stolen 60 of his New Hampshire Reds and replaced them with culls and otherwise worthless chickens.

As a result, he said, egg production has fallen off from about three cases a week to about three dozen eggs per day.

Glass told deputy sheriffs he can't figure out why anyone who steals his good chickens takes the trouble to replace them with bad ones.

Stolen Pickup Truck Still on Missing List

A dark green 1939 pickup truck stolen from the J. B. March Roofing company garage some time Friday night or Saturday morning still was listed among the missing last night.

Police said the truck had not been recovered. Teletype and radio messages describing it have been sent out. The truck, valued at $70, was taken from an unlocked garage.

Burglars Ransack High St. Store; Hospital Locker Thief Gets $300

MONEY TAKEN FROM WALLET OF DR. ELICKER

Closet Is Forced Open
While Physician Works
In Nearby Surgery Room

While Dr. C. Robert Elicker, 720 High street, was in Pottstown hospital's operating room doing voluntary work for its orthopedic clinic yesterday morning, a thief stole $300 from the wallet he had left in his locker when he changed into the white operating uniform.

The locker room, just outside the operating room, is only a few dozen feet from both the main front door and rear door of the hospital.

His locker, one of 12 green wooden ones in the room, was forced open with a screwdriver or similar metal pry that dug into the wood and opened the tongue of the small lock.

Dr. Elicker went into the locker room about 10:30 o'clock, it was reported, to change into the whites for washing before going into the operating room.

Every Monday, he does work at the hospital's clinic, which provides free, part-payment or private treatment for children and adults suffering from bone and muscle defects. Dr. Elicker has been donating his services to the clinic since its start several years ago.

THE $300 WAS money that he intended to deposit in a bank as soon as he was through in the operating room, hospital attaches said.

Dr. Elicker discovered that his locker had been forced open and the money taken when he came out at noon.

Plainclothesman Lewis M. Borgiet headed the investigation at the hospital. Sgt. Thomas A. Lawler was called three hours later to check the locker and wallet for fingerprints.

It was the first theft reported recently at the hospital, although a small quantity of expensive medicine was taken from a locker months ago.

Minister's Promotion Is Good News; Tip Wins $5 for Woman

Advancement for one of Pottstown's old friends was the news tip that captured first prize yesterday in The Mercury's weekly contest.

Mrs. Donald T. Floyd, 378 Walnut street, won the $5 by reporting that the Rev. John A. Smith, pastor at Trinity Evangelical Congregational church from 1916 to 1920, had been elected bishop of the entire Evangelical Congregational denomination.

Right behind Mrs. Floyd's tip came a crop of reports on highway accidents.

Mrs. Gertrude Randle, Pottstown RD 1, won the second prize of $3 with a quick tip on a car's overturning on Route 100. She helped the uninjured occupants climb out, then telephoned 2263.

Third prize of $2 went to Mrs. Edward Boyer, West High street, for telling The Mercury of an early-morning accident that saw a big truck run wild after hitting a pole.

The examinations will be given by Dr. Hayden O. Evans, Pottsgrove physician, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Thalmier, newly appointed school nurse.

ALARM REPAIRS SLOWED BY RAIN

Seven Fire Call Boxes
Still Disconnected; Date
For Completion Is Oct. 15

Rain has added about two weeks to the expected time it will take to install all eight East High street fire alarm boxes to the new overhead system, Borough Electrician William H. Price said last night.

Originally, Price believed the job would be done by the end of the month. Last night he extended the probable finish date to Oct. 15.

Price and his crew started work on the new system early in August.

The overhead hook-up replaces the underground High street cable carrying fire box and police call box lines. The cable has been damaged by water and cannot be replaced now.

Price has said, because of a shortage of borough finances and lead for the cable covering.

Meanwhile, Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer has become increasingly worried by the seven fire boxes still disconnected.

"Fall weather is here and people are going to be starting fires in their furnaces. Anything can happen," he said last night.

Jews Here to Mark Succoth Feast Today

Services commemorating the Autumn harvest and the wandering of the people of Israel in the wilderness will mark the celebration of Succoth—the Feast of the Tabernacles—by Pottstown's Jewish community today.

The feast is named for the small booths, or tabernacles, in which the Jews lived during their wanderings. To symbolize these crude huts, a "succoth" has been constructed at the rear of the Congregation Mercy and Truth synagogue.

Built of branches and decorated with foods, the hut is the scene of the Kiddush, or sanctification, which will be held after the services.

The ceremony, from which the Christian Holy Communion is derived, will be followed by refreshments served by the sisterhood of the synagogue with Mrs. Jerome Eisner as chairman.

The celebration of the feast began at 5:35 o'clock last night with evening services, followed by the Kiddush. Morning services will begin at 9 o'clock today, with Dr. Emil Schorsch, rabbi, giving a sermon entitled, "Man's Task in Nature's Paradise."

A "LULAV" MADE of one branch of palm, myrtle and willow and an esrog, a Palestinian citrus fruit, will be passed from hand to hand during the service to mark the harvest festival.

The children of the congregation will participate in the morning services and the Kiddush afterwards.

Evening services will be held at 5:35 o'clock tonight, while morning services will be held again at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Dr. Schorsch's sermon theme for tomorrow's service will be "How to Survive the Catastrophes of the Human Race."

After tomorrow's services, a half-festival will be celebrated through Monday and will be followed by the observance of festivals of Shemini Atzeret—solemn assembly, and Simchas Torah, or rejoicing of the Law, next Tuesday and Wednesday.

GLASS SMASHED TO GAIN ENTRY; NOTHING TAKEN

Owners Discover Break;
Police Protection Meager
In Early Morning Hours

Two panes of glass were broken and three desks were ransacked in W. S. Antrim and Son glass store, 62 High street, in a burglary attempt that was discovered yesterday morning.

The would-be thieves, apparently intent on finding bigger things, ignored several dollars in change and some expensive glass-cutting tools that were in the desk drawers they examined.

Daniel Antrim, 311 Glasgow street, Stowe, a member of the firm, found a broken window on the west side of the office when he came to work at 7 o'clock. The store was closed at 4:30 p. m. Saturday.

Police were not in a position to make careful checks of business places early yesterday morning, since there were only two men on duty from 3 to 6 o'clock, and only one man on duty from 6 to 8 o'clock.

No report of the burglary attempt was made to newsmen at borough hall.

W. S. ANTRIM, head of the firm, said the burglars had first tried to enter by opening a window at the back. But finding this led only to

BOROUGH TRUCK CRASHES; 1 HURT

Employee Slightly Injured
As Vehicle Smashes Into Center Avenue Utility Pole

A 70-year-old borough employee was injured slightly yesterday afternoon when a borough dump truck hit a utility pole on Center avenue near South Rohland street.

Philip Fillman, 1255 Queen street, had been standing up in the rear of the truck, just behind the cab. When he was thrown forward, he suffered brush burns on the left side of his face. A Good Will ambulance took him to Memorial hospital.

The truck driver, George Boalton, 22 Reynolds avenue, told police at borough hall that he was traveling east on Center avenue (toward the disposal plant) at 1 o'clock when he thought that the dump truck body was raising itself.

Boalton said he reached down with his right hand to set the dumping lever. In doing so, he lost control of the steering wheel briefly, and the right front fender of the truck struck the pole.

The front-seat passengers, John Morrissey, 344 South street, and Merrill Renninger, 311 South street, were not injured.

A THREE-YEAR-old girl suffered bruises of the head and a lacerated lip in a collision at the intersection of Route 73 and Swamp pie, Gilbertville, between her father's car and a truck, Collegeville State police reported yesterday.

The child, Rose Ann Melcher, Philadelphia, was treated in Pottstown hospital. Her father, Robert P. Melcher, was driving east on Route 73 when the accident happened Sunday night.

The truck driver, Hazen Heacock, Boyertown, apparently had been starting a left turn as the Melcher's big 1937 sedan began to pass it.

Because damage was slight, neither driver at first reported the accident to State police. The investigation started after the child's injury was reported. The drivers had exchanged identification.

SNOWS HIT BUENOS AIRES

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 25 (AP) — The biggest snowfall in 30 years hit parts of Buenos Aires province today. This is the normal Spring season for this section of the globe.

Pottstown's busiest intersection, High and Hanover streets, and the whole downtown business district were left unguarded for four hours last night.

No patrolman covered the most important beat in town from 6 until 10 o'clock, when newly-appointed Patrolman Andrew Kovach Jr. came on duty.

During the four-hour interval, three patrolmen—two in cars and one on another foot beat—were charged with guarding Pottstown's more than 63 miles of streets.

an empty shed, they broke a pane of glass in an office window.

After ransacking the three desks, he said, they tried to force the lock on a door between the office and main store. When the lock held, they removed a big pane of glass in the upper half of the door and crawled into the store.

They opened the cash register, which was empty, then looked through the main store.

Apparently, the thieves left the same way they had entered.

After a preliminary check of the office and store, the head of the firm said: "As far as we know, they didn't take anything."

The glass was replaced promptly.

The generality of men expend the early part of their lives in contributing to render the latter part miserable.—Jean de la Bruyere.

Still Going Strong at 70!

MONTGOMERY county's court is held in high esteem throughout the State of Pennsylvania because of the many brilliant decisions handed down by Harold G. Knight, president judge of the court of common pleas, the 38th Pennsylvania judicial district.

Judge Knight is renowned for his ableness over a great many years. He has a scintillating lawyer, then became one of the keenest minds ever to grace a Montgomery county bench.

Judge Knight just observed his 70th birthday. He's still going strong. So, from us go congratulations and a hearty wish for many more years of health and service to his country.

Judge Knight also should be congratulated for his having studied law. He's a great teacher, a witty philosopher, on the bench.

Now, had he studied to be a public school teacher, and had he gotten a job in Pottstown's public schools, he might have been considered unfit for public service as many as eight years ago. For here in Pottstown, the school board wants to retire all school teachers at 62!

Furnaces Are Fireproof Too!

MANY costly fires have resulted from the fallacy of neglecting insurance on "fireproof" buildings.

Today, with replacement costs soaring, this neglect can be doubly tragic.

Recently a hospital which was not insured against fire because the building was considered fireproof suffered a $4,000,000 blaze.

Afterward the administrator of the hospital wrote:

"It is impossible for us to think of re-building . . . Before the great fire, our debt was still $400,000, and it is estimated that it would cost $4,000,000 to restore to its former state what was so badly destroyed. Of course we had no insurance against fire on our building for it was 'fireproof.'"

Fire engineers constantly point out that many fires occur in buildings which are considered fireproof or fire-resistant because these structures usually are filled with highly combustible furnishings, decorations or materials.

"A furnace is fireproof too," they add, "but that doesn't keep the material inside the furnace from burning."

The moral to this little story is, don't rest on your laurels where fire is concerned. Ceaseless vigilance in all respects is the price of safety. Even the security factor of the best type of construction can be cancelled out by a home-made wiring job, trashy basements or a careless smoker. Clean out those dangerous collections of bric-a-brac and refuse. And if you are doubtful about such facilities as wiring, call on someone who can properly check up for you. One of the greatest hazards are overloaded circuits—two or three double sockets on one outlet.

Look about you! Are you the occupant of a safe structure, perhaps a "fireproof" building, or a potential furnace?

Killer of Kids!

ACCIDENTS kill more young people than any disease!

Here are the figures for 1948, just announced by the National Safety Council:

	Death Rate per 100,000 Population
1 to 4 Years:
Accidents	41
Pneumonia	22
Congenital malformations	13
5 to 14 Years:
Accidents	25
Heart disease	4
Pneumonia	3
15 to 24 Years:
Accidents	55
Tuberculosis	17
Heart disease	9

In the 1 to 14 age group alone, accidents claimed 10,741 lives—more than the combined toll of pneumonia, congenital malformation, cancer, tuberculosis, leukemia, leukemia and heart disease.

In this same age group, accidents caused 10 times as many deaths as polio in 1948.

Take time to be safe!

PCA's Place in Chest Is Vital One, Member Says

Helps the Ill and Needy

To the Editor: "Puzzled" ("New One in Chest," Readers Say, Sept. 18) says he has never heard of the Pennsylvania Citizens Association for Health and Welfare and questions whether the Pottstown Community Chest ought to allot $300 to it in 1951.

Maybe one reason "Puzzled" is in the dark is that PCA spends no money on high-priced publicity but simply does its essential job in a quiet, thorough way.

Not "new." PCA has been working for 38 years in Pennsylvania (formerly called Public Charities Association) to discourage waste and inefficiency in health and welfare programs and to help public and voluntary agencies do a better job.

PCA helped secure Pennsylvania's state mental institutional program, helped establish the juvenile court to aid delinquent boys and girls, was instrumental in aiding the State to organize its Welfare department and its Department of Public Assistance to give the needy better service and to give the taxpayer more for his money—and countless other developments which make it possible for people in Pottstown to live secure and happy lives.

"Puzzled" had better wake up to the fact that it is pretty hard to get the true facts about health and welfare programs in Pennsylvania and be sure taxes and contributions are well spent unless somebody has the gumption to organize citizens to get the facts and do something about them. This is the job of PCA.

Keep your own money, if you like.

WASHINGTON

Missouri Camp Filled By Parity-Price Grain

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—While the Army and Air Force will have to reopen and rebuild costly cantonments to house the 3,000,000-man defense force planned by Secretary Marshall, more than 200 buildings in a Missouri camp are bulging with grain bought at parity prices by the Commodity Credit corporation in an utterly fantastic deal.

Although the transaction resulting in this waste of property and a heavy financial loss to the taxpayers may not fall within the jurisdiction of Senator Lyndon Johnson's revived "Truman Committee," fellow-members have called it to his attention as an example of government confusion and extravagance.

Here is the amazing story:

PROFIT: In its haste to get rid of World War II surplus and wind up its affairs, the War Assets Administration leased 163 buildings at Camp Crowder, Mo., to the Midwest Storage and Realty company of Kansas City last September. The firm planned to use the space for storage of grain.

The rental charge was only $11,720 a year, or approximately $72 a building. But almost immediately, the Kansas City group leased the property back to the Commodity Credit corporation for a profit, as of March 30, 1950, of 1400 percent.

Between the time of the September, 1949, transaction and March 30 of this year, CCC had paid $158,000 in rentals for the Camp Crowder storage space.

But that is not the whole story.

LOSS: War Assets also leased 43 additional warehouses at Camp Crowder to the V. M. Harris Grain company of Scott City, Kansas. The annual rental for this property was $16,700, a far higher figure per building than the Kansas City group paid.

Again almost immediately, so soon, in fact, that it seems like a single transaction, the Harris company sublet the 43 buildings to Commodity Credit for the storage of wheat. As of last March, the government agency had handed over $138,658 to the Scott City firm.

At the time the diversion of these leases from one government agency to another Federal corporation was made, with a loss of $275,000 to the taxpayers, the offices of War Assets and Commodity Credit were only a ten minutes' walk from each other. An alert official could have made it in eight minutes.

DUPLICATED: War Assets officials must have known that CCC was desperate for grain storage space, for the newspapers and official statements were full of it. Last year, as now, the farmers were spilling their surplus crops on the ground because of stuffed elevators, bins and warehouses.

Moreover, interested members of the Senate like Mr. Williams of Delaware, as well as worried Democrats, maintain that this ancient system of siphoning profits through such a leasing arrangement can be duplicated many times. And in several instances the barracks and buildings now needed for raising a Korean or "cold war" army and air force are serving as politico-financial barns.

REWARD: Although the White House will probably deny it, President Truman promised AFL-CIO labor leaders at their recent off-the-record dinner conference that he would fire Robert N. Denham as counsel of the National Labor Relations board. It was a reward for their all-out support in the forthcoming November elections.

In fact, Mr. Truman gave a special message to William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor. Taking him aside, Mr. Truman informed "Friend Bill" that Mr. Denham would be out before the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor at Houston, Tex. Mr. Green was thus able to report to his membership that he had their legal enemy's scalp.

"This is just as good," confided Mr. Green to a friend, "as the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. Mr. Truman and myself have been kicked round because we couldn't get repeal through Congress. It is now just as good as off the books, with Denham out."

Religion is the fourth basic pillar on which a perfectly happy marriage rests. And this spiritual hunger should increase with the passing years and her increasing loneliness.

Finally, perfect marriages demand the gratification of the parental hunger. With three other children to support, the man will probably not be very enthusiastic about having any more with wife No. 2.

Obviously, I am being very blunt and harsh about this matter for it takes a jolt to awaken a hypnotized girl like Marjorie and knock a little "horse sense" into her skull.

Mr. Mark Henricks, 52 King Street, BECAUSE he is observing his 91st birthday anniversary today.

"Puzzled." But don't try to prevent the Pottstown Community Chest from doing its duty to the ill and needy in this community and throughout the State.

Through the PCA, the Pottstown Chest knows it can join with other communities and with the State government of Pennsylvania in doing a careful, efficient job.

Protests Death Sentence

To the Editor: I was shocked to read in Saturday's Mercury that the Army had sentenced to death an officer for refusing to obey an order which would have led him and 12 of his men to certain death in the Korean war.

I am sure all right-thinking and humane people will agree with me that this officer did not lack bravery, but used good, common sense. The fact that he had risked his life in the service of his country during World War II is good evidence of his courage.

As the father of two sons and a daughter who served their country in World War II, I am asking all people in the Pottstown area to write to President Truman to spare the life of First Lt. Leon Gilbert, of York.

Let Them Work If Able

To the Editor: It's good to know that the local school board can't force teachers into retirement when they reach the age of 62, but the news that the board may "terminate their services" is not so good.

The board's position is legally quite correct, judging from your report from Harrisburg, but the morals of its position are rather shaky.

In general, the principle of getting rid of workers after their 62d or 65th or even 70th birthday is poor. Witness Pottstown industries, which will keep men on the job as long as they can work.

Each teacher should be considered an individual, and if he is capable of teaching until he is 80, he should be allowed to do so.

Much better than "terminating the services" of teachers past 62 years of age would be to set up a board to examine them after that age, and if they are found still fit, let them teach, with the board's blessings.

HEAVY, HEAVY—!

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 25.—For what I think is the first time, a movie star will be used in the TV exploitation of a movie he appears in. The pic is Sol Lesser's "Tarzan's Peril," with Tarzan Lex Barker working in 13 eight-minute TV films advertising the pic. The video episodes will be called "Lex Barker in Africa," with Lex appearing in regular clothes rather than Tarzan's costume. Thalia productions, headed by Julian Lesser, is filming the TV pics, with Harry Chandler writing.

Hollywood's old nightmare: Hear that Louis Armstrong's life story is being peddled to movies? I dreamed that Larry Parks would play the lead in blackface—with Al Jolson singing Louis' numbers and Harry James doing his trumpet tooting!

Ida Lupino may direct a picture in Lima, Peru, for Producer Jorge del Morales' outfit called Inca S. A. (which does NOT mean sex-appeal) after she does "Restless Age" for Filmakers.

Ezzard Charles agrees to defend his boxing title against Joe Louis—then rushes out and buys a gym in Cincinnati, Insurance?

IS IT TRUE MANY independent artists are bottled up because United Artists doesn't even have the money for prints or advertising?

Joan Evans and Farley Granger go romantic again in Sam Goldwyn's next, "All For Love." They're devoted sweethearts after being anything but in "Our Very Own" and "Edge of Doom." Wilma Shaw is doing the script on "All For Love."

Robert Preston SINGS in "Rio Grande!"

Congrats to Emyln Williams. When the British star left here after making two as yet unreleased pics, "Three Husbands" and "The Scarf," he said that unless the play he was writing was a huge success I should never mention it again. The play "Accolade" opened recently in London and I hear it's really a smash.

Barbara Stanwyck and Helen Ferguson, arriving from Rome via Queen Elizabeth held up by Customs for two hours—all sorts of Christmas shopping. Remember—only 77 shopping days 'til Xmas!

IF YOU WANT to invest, DON'T try oil-wells! Prominent movie-star business manager tells me they've paid off for very very few. But Real Estate—there's a different story.

Gene Mann is after Mickey Rooney to play the lead in Saroyan's "The Human Comedy" at the El Capitan this winter. Type casting?

How to get a starring role—Lois Butler will star in "The Arizona Story," to be independently produced this winter, in Arizona of all places, by Paul Bartlett. Lois Butler is Mrs. Bartlett.

OYSTERS PLENTIFUL—Oysters are very plentiful and the demand for the bivalves is brisk, according to restaurateurs. In the market, stewing oysters are $1 and $1.50 per hundred, while the frying oysters are $2. Crab meat is 70 cents a pound.

WIN PRIZES—Canton Pottstown, Patriots Militant, IOOF, won first prize in the competitive drill held at the Sovereign Grand lodge sessions held at Portland, Ore. They also won first prizes in the street parade for the best appearance and the group coming the greatest distance.

WINS PENNANT—Detroit won the American League pennant, defeating Cleveland, 2-0. A mighty home run by Rudy York also scored Charlie Gehringer for the only runs in the game. Feller allowed the victory only three hits. The Philadelphia Athletics, by defeating the New York Yankees, 6-1, knocked them out of the pennant race.

POTTSGROVE—G. Edwin Brumbaugh, architect in charge of the restoration of Pottsgrove Manor erected by John Potts, founder of Pottstown, made an address before the Pottstown Historical society. He told of progress of the work.

SMALL GAIN—The new census figures show that the borough of Pottstown now has a population of 20,634, a gain of 1204 in the past ten years. Montgomery county's gain in population is 288,856 from 265,804.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

THOUGH well-known and easily recognized, hemophilia is one of the most baffling of blood diseases when it comes to an understanding of its basic causes.

PURPLE SUN —

But shortly after noon yesterday the yellowish light began to return and by 1 o'clock the sun appeared purple, with hints of yellow and white around the rim.

This lasted for slightly more than two hours; then clouds combined with smoke to hide the sun entirely. The quality of the light remained the same, however, bright and eerie.

FOR MOST OF those who looked upon the purple sun and the accompanying yellow light as something other than a variety of weather, Sunday and yesterday brought reactions similar to those dating back thousands of years, when every eclipse, sun or moon halo, violent storm or unusual cloud formation was looked upon as a sign of something, generally something bad.

Those who telephoned news desks or weather bureaus to ask if the world were coming to an end or "Does this mean war?" were repeating, probably without realizing it, the reactions of the parents, grandparents and more remote ancestors.

Middle-aged Pottstowners still recall, for instance, what happened here in the early Spring of 1914, when a halo of distinct brightness and size appeared around the sun.

Theories about the significance of the halo were varied and numerous, and when World War I broke out several weeks later, wise fingers were shaken all over town and a chorus of I-told-you-so's proclaimed the wisdom of the halo-interpreters.

When Halley's comet became bright here in April and May of 1910, the alarmists were even more active. Many sincerely believed that the world was about to come to an end, or at least, that punishment was about to catch up with the borough's sinners.

In one family, a gray-haired woman recalled yesterday, the mother shut doors, windows and shutters and made the children sit in a corner.

"Be good and nothing will happen to you," warned the frantic mother.

Franco, Salazar Hold Unheralded Conference

LA CORUNA, Spain, Sept. 25 (AP)—Chief of State Francisco Franco and Portugal's premier, Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, met today at Franco's Summer residence here for an unheralded conference.

Salazar was met at the border by Franco and rode with him to La Coruna, where they immediately began talks, with Spanish Foreign Minister Alberto Martin Artaño and the Spanish and Portuguese ambassadors participating.

There were reports that Spain's possible inclusion in the Atlantic pact and European Recovery program might be under discussion.

signal from Donald F. Goodnow, head parade marshal. Each division will march at a spaced interval on Goodnow's signal.

Marchers will parade from Washington street to Hanover street and then to the pie-distribution point at the end of the line of march.

Pottstown service clubs, the Mercantile bureau and the Junior Chamber of Commerce all are co-operating with the Recreation commission in the plans for the parade.

Jack Hoffman, of the Mercantile bureau, is chairman of the prize committee, while Anthony F. Rogers, of the Jaycees, is chairman of the judging committee. Members of the Lions club will assume the task of distributing the pies to the marchers as they arrive.

Optimist, American Business club, and Kiwanis members will act as marshals for each division in the parade and will take charge of assembly at the starting point.

Members of the special committee which planned the parade were: Pottstown Recreation Director Francis Donnon, who also represented the Kiwanis club; Rogers, of the Junior Chamber of Commerce; Hoffman, of the Mercantile bureau; Joe L. Bowen, of the American Business club; George A. Lessig, of the Lions club; Goodnow and Bruce Lessig, of the Optimist club; and J. Max Creswell, president of the Recreation commission.

Only Superflame Oil Circulating heaters give you these features:

1. One drum of oil saved out of every three.
2. Clean heat and maximum efficiency at low, medium or high fire because of triple combustion burner.

Only Superflame has the amazing "Fuel-Saver" which holds the heat in the heater, distributing the warmth throughout your home where it belongs, instead of blowing it out the chimney.

The "Fuel-Saver" (at right) DOUBLES the radiating surface, DOUBLES the circulating capacity, REDUCES stack loss 40% and saves 1/3 on fuel costs. Underwriters approved for burning #3 oil.

Get rid of your old "oil hog." Install a Superflame with the "FUEL-SAVER."

48 YEARS OF PROFIT SHARING

When James Cash Penney opened his Golden Rule store at Kemmerer, Wyo., on April 14, 1902, he promised the mining families of that frontier town he would give them merchandise of higher-than-ordinary quality at lower-than-usual prices. He said they would get friendly, considerate service at his store and he pledged himself to honest advertising without exaggeration or misrepresentation. Mr. Penney determined to operate his business on the principle of the Golden Rule. He kept his promise. We, here in this great town, are striving to help keep his promise.

From the success of his first store, Mr. Penney hoped to spread his unique idea of storekeeping to other small communities. He wanted to build a group of home-town stores, each staffed by honest, conscientious associates dedicated to the Golden Rule in business.

In 1906 there were two stores, in 1911 there were twenty-two, and today there are 1612 Penney stores. Mr. Penney did build a chain of stores, but more than that he built a chain of more than 50,000 associates held together by an idea.

Soprano Dorothy Maynor Will Give Recital Oct. 18 to Open Community Concert Season

The 1950-51 Pottstown Community Concert season will open on Wednesday night, Oct. 18, when Soprano Dorothy Maynor gives a recital in the Junior High school auditorium.

This will be the first year the recitals and concerts will be given in the Junior High school. During the previous six seasons, they were heard in the auditorium of the Pottstown Senior High school.

There will be three programs in the forthcoming season, in addition to Miss Maynor's.

The Columbia concert trio will play on Dec. 12; the Columbus Boy-choir will sing on Jan. 11, and on Feb. 28, Menahem Pressler, young Israeli pianist, will close the season with a recital.

MISS MAYNOR is a native of Norfolk, Va., where she grew up in the poor parish of a Methodist vicarage and helped her family by singing in the church choir.

She entered Hampton Institute when she was 14, joined the Hampton choir and was one of 40 students chosen to tour the United States and seven countries of Europe.

A few years later she received a scholarship to the Westminster Choir school at Princeton University, where she studied conducting and choir music.

After she sang for Serge Koussevitzky at the Berkshire Music festival, she became well known and soon was asked to be soprano soloist with leading American orchestras.

This means output of a new high of 1,942,200 net tons of ingots and steel for castings.

Rare Animal Is Flown From Congo to Antwerp

ANTWERP, Belgium, Sept. 25 (AP) — A female okapi, one of the rarest animals in the world, arrived at Antwerp airport today from the Belgian Congo, to make her home in the Antwerp zoo.

She was flown to Belgium because the long sea trip is rough on okapis. The zoo has one male okapi who survived such a trip. It hopes to breed okapis in captivity.

Malik Asks Peace Conclave Among U. S., Soviet Chiefs

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Jacob A. Malik said today he favors a meeting of top leaders of the United States and the Soviet Union to negotiate for peace.

The Russian diplomat's statement immediately aroused speculation among United Nations delegates. Western delegates wondered whether it was part of a new Soviet "peace offensive" seeking to convince the world that the Russians are more inclined to peace than the United States.

Bulging Brassieres Point to $100,000

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 25 (AP)—The Southern Bell Telephone company here has lost at least $100,000 in two years to young women employees who took rolls of coins out of the counting room in their brassieres, police reported today.

Six young women, their families, husbands and boy friends—15 persons in all—are under arrest. Police recovered nearly $10,000, much of it in silver. They found two suitcases full of quarters and another filled with currency, totaling $5000 in all, in an automobile driven by one of the women.

Paroled Klan Chief Pulls Disappearance

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25 (AP)—David Curtis Stephenson, 56-year-old paroled former grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, has disappeared from a Carbondale, Ill., rooming house.

Governor Henry F. Schricker announced today that Stephenson, freed six months ago from Indiana State prison after serving nearly 25 years for the murder of Miss Madge Oberholzer, has been missing since Aug. 30.

An Illinois parole official said Stephenson disappeared while his parole agent and his sponsor were on vacation. This official added the former Klan leader left a note saying that he would return in a week.

REDS BUILD RAILROAD

TAIPEI, Formosa, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Chinese nationalists reported today that Chinese Communists are rebuilding, as a military project, the railroad that runs through the Southwest China province of Yunnan to Indochina.

Malik also said his government would pledge not to be the first to use the atomic bomb.

Two pretty girls admitted they took as much as $150 a day each. Another said she took $75 to $90 a day, while others admitted taking lesser amounts.

Assistant Dade County Solicitor Michael F. Zarowny said all the thefts were from the counting room where a torrent of silver came each day from pay station phones.

He said the girls admitted stuffing rolls of quarters in their brassieres before putting the money in automatic counting machines.

ZAROWNY INDICATED those involved may escape prosecution because, he said, "The only thing we've got is a confession."

"We can't introduce that until we establish a crime and we can't establish a crime," he added. "There is no way to tell if the money was taken from the boxes, nor how much."

"The phone company is not in position to say if it lost anything. On advice of counsel, phone company officials won't sign affidavits to make a complaint to the detective bureau," Zarowny said.

"We have no date when the offense was committed, who got the money nor how much was taken," he added.

Mills said two pretty girls admitted they took as much as $150 a day each, another said she took $75 to $90 a day while others admitted taking lesser amounts.

How much the total loss would amount to over a period of years was not known. Mills said it would run to hundreds of thousands.

Police were checking back only two years, since the statute of limitations protects beyond that.

The Russian deputy foreign minister made his views known to a delegation of the Maryland Committee for Peace. This organization has been active in distributing a "peace ballot" asking signers whether they favor outlawing of atomic weapons and a U. S.-Russian meeting to negotiate differences.

Dr. Ruth Bleier, president of the committee, said recently it was merely coincidence that this ballot was distributed at the same time as the "Stockholm peace appeal," denounced as a fraud by many anti-Communists in the United States.

The Stockholm appeal calls mainly for an outlawing of atomic weapons.

The Maryland committee arranged some time ago to see Malik. Its questions apparently were submitted in advance, for Malik had his answers ready. The Russians are always careful about answering questions, and never do so until the answers have been cleared and approved.

Reporters were not present when Malik met the Maryland group at the Russian delegation's offices in Park avenue. The statement of his views was made public by a Russian spokesman, who telephoned the Associated Press.

TREAT 16 SURVIVORS

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 25 (AP)—All 16 persons aboard a United States B50 bomber which crashed Thursday night in the Labrador wilderness were brought to Goose Bay today for medical treatment.

Justice Jackson Grants Top Reds Freedom Bond

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson today granted freedom under bond to ten of 11 U. S. Communist leaders convicted of conspiracy to advocate overthrow of the government by violence.

Jackson's stay of sentence means that the ten red leaders will remain at liberty—presumably under close Federal surveillance—pending a final Supreme court decision on the case.

In an eight-page opinion explaining his action, Jackson declared: "I am not naive enough to underestimate the trouble-making propensities of these defendants."

"But, with the Department of Justice alert to the dangers, the worst they can accomplish in the short time it will take to end the litigation is preferable to the possibility of national embarrassment from a celebrated case of unjustified imprisonment of Communist leaders."

"Under no circumstances must we permit their symbolization of an evil force in the world to be hallowed and glorified by any semblance of martyrdom."

"The way to avoid that risk is not to jail these men until it is finally decided that they should stay jailed."

Eugene O'Neill Jr. Kills Self; Shattered Love Hinted Cause

WOODSTOCK, N. Y., Sept. 25 (AP)—Eugene O'Neill Jr., 40, son of the noted playwright, killed himself today by slashing a wrist. Ruth Lander, an artists' agent, said she had broken off an engagement with him the past Saturday.

Friends reported he had been despondent since then.

"Everyone knows about my engagement being broken," Miss Lander said after learning of the suicide. "I'm very sorry, very unhappy and broken up about the whole thing."

Ulster County Coroner Earnest O. Kelly said O'Neill slashed his right wrist with a razor while in the bathtub at his home and "staggered downstairs while he was bleeding to death."

Kelley, listing the case as suicide, said O'Neill also had cut his leg with the razor but it was the wrist wound which caused his death.

His body was discovered by a neighbor, Mrs. Frank Meyer.

O'NEILL HAD lived in Woodstock three years. He was an instructor in the New School for Social Research in New York city, where he taught literature and drama.

A Yale graduate, where he received a doctor's degree in philosophy, he taught Greek there for several years and also lectured on the Greek language at Princeton and Sarah Lawrence college.

O'Neill was a half brother of Mrs. Charles Chaplin, the former Oona O'Neill.

His mother, Mrs. George Pitt-Smith, lives at Douglaston, Long Island.

Dr. Hans Cohn, who was summoned to the house, said no notes were found immediately.

Spy Trial May Clear Field Disappearance

BERLIN, Sept. 25 (AP)—A forthcoming spy trial in East Germany of six purged Communists may produce the long-missing American, Noel H. Field, as a witness.

Dr. Fritz Kaul, leading Communist attorney in East Berlin, who is expected to be one of the prosecutors, said today that Field "could" be produced as a witness if the prosecution wished to call him.

Field has been named as an American spy by the Communists at previous trials in Budapest and Sofia, but has never been called as a witness.

Field, a former U. S. State department employee, was the first of four members of his family to disappear in one of the post-war period's strangest mysteries. Noel, said by Communists to have been an American special agent in Switzerland during the war, vanished behind the iron curtain from Prague in May, 1949.

His brother, Hermann, a Cleveland, Ohio, architect, disappeared during a plane flight from Warsaw to Prague. Noel's wife, Herta, who had gone to the Prague airport to meet Hermann, vanished when he failed to arrive.

The fourth of the vanishing Field family, Mrs. Robert Wallach, Noel Field's adopted daughter, was reported in Berlin three weeks ago to start a new search for the missing Noel. She also has disappeared.

With an assurance of expert workmanship, an outstanding selection of fabrics, colors and patterns. Budget terms can be arranged.

Gen. Walker to Review Yank's Death Sentence

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, Tuesday, Sept. 26 (AP)—The death sentence imposed on an American infantry officer for refusing to lead his men in the line was put before the Army theater commander, Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, today for review.

The officer, First Lt. Leon A. Gilbert, of Chester, Company A, 24th Infantry regiment, was a combat veteran of the 92d infantry in Italy during World War II.

He was tried by a court martial under the 75th article of war on a charge that in the presence of other officers he refused to lead his men into position.

Gilbert was convicted and on July 30 he was sentenced to die.

Harold R. Layman at the brake control of a PRR freight car

Railroadman

We don't know the destination of the Pennsylvania Railroad car that's carrying Harold Layman in the picture above...but we do know that many freight cars, on many railroads, are needed to deliver the materials and supplies bought by Bell Telephone every month.

Thus railroadmen, too, are among the many skilled people whose jobs depend, in part, on Bell Telephone purchases.

Any way you look at it, the successful operation of the telephone business means a great deal to the steady employment of a great many Pennsylvanians, both in and out of the telephone industry.

Missionary Society Group Holds Hat Social Affair

A covered dish luncheon and hat social was held recently when the Women's Missionary society of St. Luke's Lutheran church, Obelisk, held its regular meeting at the church pavilion.

Mrs. E. L. Angstadt, wife of the pastor, led the devotional period, the topic of which was "The Overtones of Stewardship."

Mrs. Eva M. Richard, president, presided at the business meeting.

A social followed the meeting and each member displayed a hat which she had designed. There were many amusing and unique creations, the most interesting of which was the contribution of Mrs. James S. Britton, of Schwenksville RD. Her hat consisted of a funnel covered with clothes pins fastened onto a paper plate of flowers and a toweling corn tassel. The hat was worn by Mrs. Betty Reitz.

Prizes were awarded by the judges who were Mrs. John Kulp, Mrs. Flora Gresh, and Mrs. William Mutter. This group also served as the table committee.

Singing was led by Mrs. Beulah Mutter.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

CEDRIC ADAMS was having a soda in a Minneapolis drug store when a man confounded the pharmacist by demanding a concoction that would make his eyes red and red. "You must be slightly nuts," decided the clerk. "Not at all," insisted the customer. "Do you think I want all my friends to know I don't own a television set?"

M. Musselman, in his amusing book, "It Took Nine Tailors," tells about the time an important studio conference called by Charlie Chaplin was interrupted by the buzzing of a particularly large and active horsefly. After missing it with several wild swipes, Chaplin lost his patience and called for a swatter. He continued the discussion with the swatter poised for action. At last the fly settled on a table directly in front of him and Chaplin tensed for the kill. Slowly he raised the swatter. Just as he was about to deliver the death blow, however, he deliberately lowered his weapon and allowed the fly to escape. "For Heaven's sake," blurted someone, "why didn't you swat it?" Chaplin shrugged his shoulders and pointed out: "It wasn't the same fly."

WINSTON CHURCHILL tells this story on himself. In the House of Commons one day he orated, "We have all heard how Dr. Guillotine was executed by the instrument he invented." Sir Samuel jumped up and interrupted, "He was nothing of the sort." Unperturbed, Mr. Churchill proceeded, "Well, he ought to have been!"

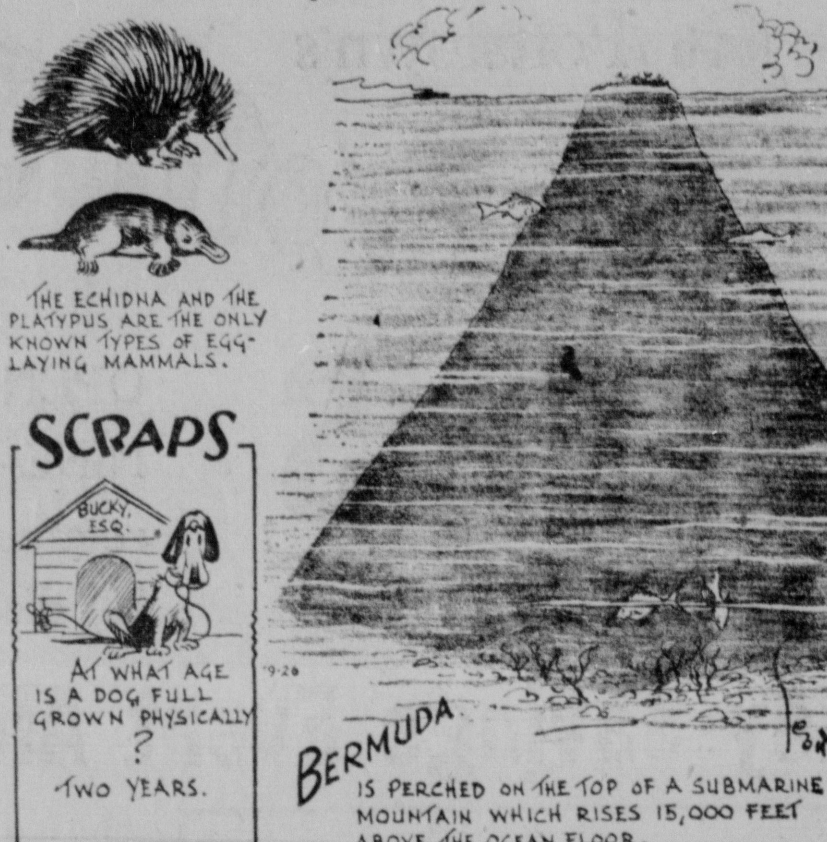

A parsimonious merchant went off to Florida on a fishing trip but left his wife at home to shiver in the wintry blasts in Duluth. She wired him for additional funds. He sent her a picture of all the fish he had caught, and scrawled on the back, "I send you one million kisses." She wired back a collect: "Thanks for the handsome check you sent. The milkman cashed it for me this morning!"

Colonel Campbell writes that they have a new revolver, ladies' size, on sale which fires so rapidly it shoots eight times before you didn't know it was loaded.

Women Love Them, Baldheads Are Told

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, Sept. 25 — Take heart, those bald spots on your pate matter little. The women love you just the same.

That's what delegates to the United Baldheads of America were told here during the weekend at a convention aimed mainly at bucking up spirits and engaging in horse-play.

For instance a salesman caught peddling hair tonic was hustled out of the convention site. Pretty girl speakers assured delegates that "women prefer baldheads." Other speakers claimed people with shiny scalps are "mentally superior."

Special honors were paid to delegates from Bald Knob, Ark., and Hairless, Tenn.

The bill, signed by Mr. Truman

A companion bill, awaiting presidential action, would authorize federal aid in maintaining and operating schools in such districts.

Both bills resulted from skyrocketing school costs and shortage of space for pupils in areas which have had sudden population growths due to the migration of government and military families. School districts surrounding army posts especially asked for this aid.

The bill, signed by Mr. Truman

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—President Truman has signed a bill authorizing federal aid in the construction of school facilities in areas where an influx of government workers has swollen school enrollments.

Both bills resulted from skyrocketing school costs and shortage of space for pupils in areas which have had sudden population growths due to the migration of government and military families. School districts surrounding army posts especially asked for this aid.

TROJANS TRIP UPPER MERION

17 to give Pottstown a golden shot at a TD.

But after Green belted his way to the 12, Chaplin misfired on two pass efforts that bounced out of the hands of the receivers, and Upper Merion took over.

A penalty shoved the Spartans back to their one, where Dudas kicked out. Once again the Trojans began to move their ponderous attack, but a penalty and Chaplin's fumble, fallen upon by Ted Teaford at the Spartan 40 chilled that. Matzik threw thrice unsuccessfully and Dudas booted to Nixon, who returned to the Pottstown 37, launching area for the final TD.

NIXON ANOTHER defensive twinkler, plowed guard for seven and Earl Decker claimed four more pegs on an end gallop at the quarter. Chaplin, bucking for a needed yard, got nine, and when the Spartans committed a personal foul, the Trojans were given a 15-yard boost to the UM 28.

Green socked for four, Czarick for one, and Green again on an end sweep chopped off 13 yards to the UM ten. Czarick sped for the side apes, and swerved inside the red flag on an end sweep from there. Jim Petrucelli, making his first EP effort, was perfect and Pottstown led, 13-0.

THEREAFTER, there was little to startle but UM's one TD on the misuse Pottstown punt. Once the Spartans gained the 17-yard line, Matzik passed and Nixon intercepted and raced all the way back to the Pottstown 44, where he was hit hard by Scott. Nixon fumbled and the visitors recovered.

But when Matzik tried the air-lanes again, Dutenhofer plucked off an interception and legged it to the Trojan 45. Within ten yards and a minute of that juncture, the game ended.

WHILE THE SHOW lacked a dazzle element, Green did right well for himself. He fielded two Spartan fumbles cleanly, carried one for a TD, grabbed off two dozen tackles and ran with oldtime est.

In the wall, tackles Ciskick and Hausmann played with very little relief. White was good and Decker accounted for ten Spartan yards lost with one shoetop tackle that was a corker.

But, by and large, the visitor supplied the surprise. A team of ten juniors and a soph that had lost, 19-7, to Ambler a week ago, was playing up to its hairline, and then some.

Spartan coach Tom Campion was able to say "I'm satisfied." Trojan Coach Meyers was satisfied and the partisan crowd was satisfied.

'Y' Memberships 250 Short in Drive

YMCA membership solicitors must obtain 250 more members by next Monday night, or fall short of an unofficial quota of 970 for the 1950 campaign.

At the third and final dinner meeting held at the 'Y' last night, the two leagues and the sponsoring committee reported 319 additional members over last Thursday, bringing the total thus far obtained to 720.

On Oct. 1, 970 memberships expire.

A clean-up meeting will be held by the campaign workers at the 'Y' on Monday to turn in all late memberships.

Membership booster talks were given by J. R. Sotter, general chairman of the campaign; W. W. Manship, 'Y' board president; Jacob Raden, member of the board; Smith, Seeders and Bechtel.

About 50 workers attended the meeting at which there was no special guest.

The Rev. Arthur C. Reddie, pastor of the Belmont Avenue Baptist church, Philadelphia, will be the speaker at tonight's Kiwanis club meeting in the Elks' home at 6:15 o'clock.

U. S. Pays for Relief Of Displaced Arabs

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP) — The United States made another payment today — $6,200,000 — for relief of displaced Palestine Arabs.

The check, handed in by John Ross, U. S. deputy representative on the Security council, brought to $14,200,000 the total American payments for this purpose so far.

The U. S. has promised to finance half of a $34,900,000 U. N. relief and work program adopted last year by the General assembly for Palestine refugees.

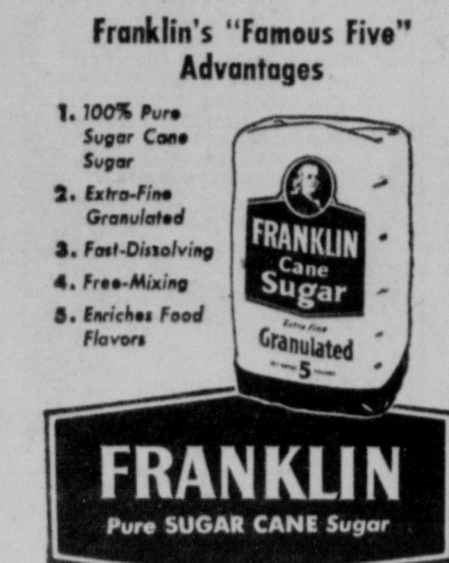

Mrs. E. J. Cregan, Jr., tells how to make her Apple Pan Dowdy

Here is the recipe
2 cups sliced cooking apples
1/4 cup Franklin Old Fashioned Brown Sugar
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup Franklin Granulated Sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup milk

Arrange sliced apples in bottom of greased 8" x 8" x 2" pan. Sprinkle with brown sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Sift together flour, baking powder and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add to creamed mixture alternately with milk. Beat well; pour over partially baked apples.

Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., about 30 minutes. Serve apple side up with cream, whipped cream or chilled custard sauce. Serves 6—and they'll eat up every scrap, says Mrs. E. J.
